To gain more knowledge in the current pathway of after-death process in England and Wales, I participated the Medical Examiner course.

This training course consists of 26 compulsory modules, introduces the content of ME training covers from legislation to the processes of scrutiny of the Medical Certificate of Cause of Death (MCCD).

By completing this ME training, I gained a broad knowledge of the new Non-Statutory system for the issuing of the MCCD and the background of the ME system. I had a better understanding of how the NHS would deal with the deceased and the cooperation with the HM Coroner (HMC) in specific cases.

The Certificate of Completion was attached at below.
